Poets, singers, artists:

you who yearn to express the truth and yet more truth, open now to the ways you already create and create without ceasing through your spirit's gifts.

Dancers, actors, musicians, photographers, creators of all kinds and intensities:

you who fervently wish that someone, that enough someones, might give you the chance to show your talent, open now and be refreshed.

Once upon this time, right here, in this room, know that wherever you are, you send out your gifts and applause for them shakes in the air like the sound right before thunder.

*Because you move as an empath, you are an awakener,
not only through the skills that you cherish but in all the ways that you serve, bringing light to this world on a silver(though invisible) platter.*

Even you, the hidden ones, you who keep your gifts secret, even you whose gifts are kept so far secret that you do not know them yet, stop holding back your tears.

Hear the call.

Awaken to the mystery of all you can know and all that you share, for our world, like you, is ready to break wide open and show forth the full joy of God.
